WEDDINGS AT COMO MAALIFUSHI

LOCATIONS

This secluded private island resort offers a range of locations for your ceremony and post-ceremony events. Our two sandbanks on Tai Beach and Madi Beach give your wedding an intimate feel, with a walk-through floral arch to conclude the ceremony on a concealed section of beach. Alternatively, vows can be exchanged at Palm Island which is joined to the main resort by a long, wooden jetty. Here your guests will discover tree trunk tables and a beach bar made of palm trees. Another venue option – the uninhabited island of Lavadhoo, a 10-minute boat ride away – will give your wedding a Robinson Crusoe spirit, with huge groves of green palm trees, crystal clear waters, swaying hammocks and an authentic tiki-bar. Couples looking for a more private wedding experience can also choose to marry on the deck of our COMO Residence, enjoying views across the peaceful Indian Ocean.

Please note: Prevailing weather conditions on the day may affect which locations can be used.

SIZE

COMO Maalifushi can accommodate your wedding whatever the size, from a small and intimate gathering to a complete island takeover for up to 150 guests. Please contact us for more information and availability.

CEREMONY

Your ceremony here is a blessing and not recognised by law. Many couples choose to marry legally at home before celebrating their union here at COMO Maalifushi. However you choose to mark the occasion, your wedding co-ordinator will be here to meet you, to confirm all your special plans and guide you through the ceremony on the day.

FLOWERS

COMO Maalifushi works with experienced local florists to create aisle decorations, bridal bouquets and groom's buttonholes. Our team of planners will ensure these floral decorations help develop your wedding's style, theme or colour scheme.

CAKE

COMO Maalifushi's expert pastry chefs will work with you to create the wedding cake you've always wanted. From traditional iced and tiered cakes to something more modern and relaxed, you can design your own or choose from a number of in-house options.

CUISINE

At COMO Maalifushi we offer an extensive choice of set wedding menus, or we can work with you to create your own memorable dining experience. Cuisine on the island reflects our international influences, showcasing the freshest sashimi and Indian Ocean seafood, along with easygoing barbecues and healthful COMO Shambhala Cuisine. Much of the fresh fruit and vegetables used in our cooking is grown here on the island.

ENTERTAINMENT

We offer a range of musical options for your ceremony. We can also source international bands, DJs and solo artists for your reception, or local Boduberu drummers that will give your event an authentic island feel. Whatever your preference, we'll work with you throughout, to create the right ambience for your day.

Please note: The client will be responsible for any outside vendor's seaplane transfers, food and beverage, and accommodation while working at the resort. All these services are subject to 10 per cent service charge and 13.2 per cent goods and services tax.
